THE W.G. HALL TRIES AGAIN

DEPARTURE OF STEAMERS FOR HAWAII AND MAUI.

Steamer Hawaii Arrives Seeking Rice
for Hilo Planters—Other Waterfront News Today.

A dead city front.
The barkentine S G Wilder will leave Fort street wharf tomorrow.

The bark Onyx will finish discharging her coal at the railway wharf by the end of the week.

The steamer Lehua is alongside Fort street wharf waiting with her cargo for a clean bill of health.

The tern Corona is discharging her cargo of brimstone at the O. R. and L. wharf for the Fertilizer works.

The bark Archer pulled alongside Oceanic wharf this afternoon from whence she will take her departure tomorrow.

Deputy Collector McStocker has been absent for the past few days from the custom house attending to matters pertaining to the quarantine and inspection of the city.

The steamers Mikahala, Kaala and Keauhou are occupying naval ways. The steamers W G Hall, Likelike, Wainalea, Claudine, Kauai and James Makee are in the roadstead. The men of war Olympia and Bennington are supposed to be at Lahaina.

The steamer W G Hall will try and get away tonight or tomorrow for Maui and Hawaii, only taking the mail and what freight and passengers are already on board. The outcome of the voyage will be waited for with interest. Will they land or will they not?

The rumor that the Chinese over at the quarantine station had become attacked with cholera was disproved by a telephone from health officer Jack McVeigh who is over there. There was a small row amongst the contract laborers last night but that was the only disturbance that took place.

The steamer Hawaii arrived from Hawaii yesterday afternoon and came to an anchor in the roadstead. Captain Fitzgerald stated that the Hawaii people were out of rice and that A. Cockburn of Hilo was on board for the purpose of securing a cargo. The Wilder Company decided to send the steamer to Kahului where she will coal, after which she will return to the windward plantations of Oahu and load rice.
